

Abstract Submission Terms & Conditions

Abstracts must be submitted by 24th April 2013, although early submission is encouraged. By submitting an abstract, you agree to the following:

- Your abstract must be structured to include: Introduction OR Rationale, Objectives (of project and or presentation), Methods or Approach, Results OR Practice/Policy Implications and Conclusion
- Submitting author to nominate their abstract theme and stream.
- The author is responsible for the accuracy of the abstract.
- The acceptance of an abstract for the Conference does not imply provision of travel, accommodation or registration for the Conference, nor any other costs associated with preparation or presentation of the abstract, or any costs associated with attendance at the Conference.
- All authors presenting at the Conference must register and pay to attend.
- You give us permission to publish your abstract submission on the Conference website, in the Conference book of abstracts and for consideration of publication in a professional/academic Journal to be advised. (Authors will be contacted after the conference to seek their interest in submitting a paper)
- If the author(s) have any commercial interests or associations that might pose a conflict of interest regarding this submission, they must be declared. If accepted for presentation, the commercial interest or association must be declared on the title slide or the slide immediately following the title slide.
- You give us permission to film or photograph your presentation at the Conference.
- You confirm that the submission has been approved by all authors.
- All abstracts submitted must be original work.
- All abstracts must be submitted in English and via the online submission site.
- Other forms of submission e.g. by post, email or fax will NOT be accepted.
- The author(s) agree(s) to materially confine their presentations to information in the abstract if accepted for presentation; if an author has more than one abstract accepted, each presentation will be materially confined to the information in the abstract selected for the specific session.
- The abstract will be reviewed by members of the Conference Scientific Committee and assessed on the results, interest and the merit of the study or project as presented in the abstract. If there are no or insufficient clarity in the results then the abstract will be rejected. The Committee's decision is final.
- At least one author will be available to present the abstract if selected for the program. The authors will immediately notify the Conference Organiser if they are unable to present an abstract or if the presenting author is changed.
